OSHA FORKLIFT TRAINING BOOMS/FORKS & SCISSORS

Only 12
Spots Available!

OSHA has revised its requirements for powered industrial truck Operator's. The new requirements are intended to reduce injuries and deaths that occur as a result of current inadequate operator training. The training is required for all drivers regardless of frequency of use!

Date: Thursday, May 16th, 2019

9:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Type: Booms, Forks and Scissors

Taught By: Admar Supply

Cost: There is no charge for the training thanks to a grant from the Department of Labor Hazard Abatement Board. However, there is a $15.00 fee for lunch, beverages and course materials. Forklift licenses are valid for three years from the date of issue.
